

CV WILLIAM BILL O'BRIEN

Contact details

46 New Works Road

Low Moor Bradford

West Yorkshire

BD12 0 L B

Tele (01274) 416 275 mobile (07710) 207058

E mail billobrien@blueyonder.co.uk

Profession Chartered Safety and Health Practitioner

Profile

well motivated, well qualified, well experienced / Health and Safety manager/advisor/ consultant with outstanding knowledge of all current safety legislation and core principles of health and safety management including Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974. Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 2000, PU W E R Regulations 1998, RR O 2005, with a demonstrable record of achievement in project management, currently specializing in Construction Health and Safety Management.

Acted as safety advisor, manager, consultant in both directly employed and freelance roles for several major companies including Construction, Heavy Civil Engineering. Transport/ Warehousing, care homes reporting directly to main boards and managing directors has provided mentor/ coaching to Client's and their staff provided consultancy to a variety of major and smaller Client's providing integrated and stand alone safety, project, construction and business management services experienced in training and auditing, CDM Regulations support , integrated systems support , safety management etc possessing outstanding knowledge of all current legislation including the CD M Regulations 2007 soon to become CDM 2015 (particular skills in advising the Client)

With a 15+ -year successful record of providing competent pragmatic health and safety management consultancy services to all phases of multimillion-pound construction, infrastructure, and environmental projects for public and private-sector clients. Experience includes identifying training needs sourcing appropriate training designing and delivering in house training. Held consultant/ competent person role on major projects supplying integrated and stand alone safety, project, construction and business management services identified training needs, designed and delivered training. Backed by strong credentials. Adept at preparing bespoke policies/procedures for all industries/undertakings.

Qualifications

OSHCR (registered safety consultant

C M I O S H Chartered Member Institution of Occupational Safety and Health

R MAPS Registered CDM C Association for project safety

M I I S RM Member International Institute Safety Risk Management

NVQ4 Occupational Health and Safety Management

CSCS white card Professionally Qualified Person highest level

Key Experience

Held Safety Advisor and consultant roles directly employed freelance and contract with several major companies reporting directly to Directors or main boards of directors and audit departments. Conducted general safety and specialist construction/ civil engineering management duties. Identified Client's work force training needs, prepared and delivered CDM and health and safety training sourced external training assessed contractors for competence/ resources. Provided integrated and stand alone construction, occupational, engineering health and safety consultancy Managed all phases of construction projects including managing design teams/ suppliers

Professional experience

April 2008 until current date

Consultant

Provided specialist health and safety management services to a variety of clients including contractors/ manufacturers, health service providers/ on a stand alone or integrated basis covering safety, environment, quality,

July 2007-april 2008

Health Safety Manager/ advisor Whetley Mills, Bradford provided occupational and construction health and safety management services to Employers large, multi national work force identified training needs sourced external training designed and delivered internal training. Successfully managed large, complex construction projects. Organised/delivered risk management seminars. Developed employers policies and procedures

Feb 2007- July 2007

Senior CDMC health and safety manager Hick tons Construction Consultants Elsecar, Provided CDM services to Hull City Council refurbishment projects Provided health and safety management services to employers staff , prepared Employers Policies/procedures Provided CDM C duties to English Heritage historical structures maintenance/refurbishment projects , including managing major refurbishment of Listed building Crewe Hall Hotel (all work carried out whilst hotel functioned normally).

April 2003- June 2003

Senior Planning Supervisor/ health safety manager/advisor R P & P Management Bradford

Retained by Morrison's Supermarket group to provide CDM and health and safety management services to the Safeway take over project value £350 million Retained by Matalan Retail group to provide CDMC and health and safety management services to the nationwide new stores project value £300million successfully managed new head office Skelmersdale Lancashire project value £275 million

Provided CDMC and health and safety management services to complex historical structures for English Heritage

Nov 2001- April-2003

Senior Planning Supervisor/ health and safety advisor Bradford Metropolitan District Council provided CDM services to local education authority BSF project value £400 million sourced, managed designers/ contractors/ suppliers, managed CDM design and construction phases

Provided Health Safety Management services to all Council Directorates including Social Services, Education Construction, Leisure

Personal details

Registered disabled person following major illness 1988 limited mobility but manages well with no special needs

Date of Birth 14th July 1949 British Citizen, full UK passport full clean UK driving licence own vehicle, good computer skills

Interests private study and continuing professional development maintaining residence/ gardens in clean/tidy condition, spectating Rugby football league